The coverage concerns power train components only, not bumper-to-bumper coverage. The law does not apply to vehicles with more than 150,000 miles at the time of sale, or to vehicles that have been branded "rebuilt" or "flood."

Illinois law requires that this vehicle will be free of a defect in a power train component for 15 days or 500 miles after delivery, whichever is earlier, except with regard to particular defects disclosed on the first page of this agreement. "Power train component" means the engine block, head, all internal engine parts, oil pan and gaskets, water pump, intake manifold, transmission, and all internal transmission parts, torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and all rear axle internal parts, and rear wheel bearings. You (the consumer) will have to pay up to $100 for each of the first 2 repairs if the warranty is applied.

The warranty does not extend to damage that occurs as a result of off-road use, racing, towing, abuse and other negligence.

Purchaser represents and warrants as follows: (1) that he is of legal age; (2) that he has the right to sell and dispose of the trade-in vehicle; (3) that there are no undisclosed liens, claims, or encumbrances on the trade-in vehicle; (4) that title for the trade-in vehicle is not "rebuilt," "salvage," "flood," "not actual mileage" or any other form of title that would materially reduce the value of the car from normal title; (5) that the odometer on the trade-in vehicle has not been altered, set-back, disconnected or replaced. Purchaser agrees to indemnify Dealership for any loss resulting from a breach of the above warranties and shall pay Dealership any losses incurred upon demand. Dealership (among other remedies) reserves the right to rescind the sale and seek appropriate damages if any of the above representations are untrue.
